HIGH ALTITUDE COSMIC RAY RESEARCH.

High altitude baloon flights for measuring the intensity of penetrating cosmic rays in Bangalore are being conducted by the Tata Institute of Fundamental Research, Bombay. The flights are launched from the Central Observatory, Bangalore. The apparatus, weighing 54 lbs. with Geiger Counters to detect the cosmic rays and with lead blocks for absorbing the rays, is enclosed in a cellophane cage which is carried into the Stratosphere by 22 hydrogen-filled baloons. The height of the instrument and the intensity of the cosmic rays are transmitted down to the ground by a radio transmitter placed in the cage, and the entire information obtained by the flight is recorded automatically on a tape.

When similar ascents were made from Bangalore in June 1949, the apparatus reached altitudes above 95,000 feet, and much valuable information was obtained.

It may be mentioned that similar flights in connection with Cosmic Ray Research were conducted in the premises of the Central Observatory, Bangalore, by Dr. Millikan, F.R.S., N.L., in January 1940.

Miss a Meal Movement.

Sri Jag Parvesh Chandra, New Delhi, has organised the ovo Movement as a substantial measure of solution to the esent problem of food shortage in the country. The main a of the Movement is that every Indian should contribute personal sacrifice to reduce the food shortage in the country d help to save the millions of rupees being spent on the port of foodgrains from foreign countries. Any individual sirous of joining the Movement is required to offer a pledge under :—

"I PROMISE TO MISS A MEAL EVERY WEEK, AND TO DARW ONE FOURTEENTH LESS THAN MY FULL WEEK RATION TILL 1951".

2. As the citizens are well aware, India has been importing om foreign countries foodgrains in large quantities add nually about 130 crores of rupees are being spent by the overnment of India, on an average. To stop this drain, overnment have taken several measures so as to step up the cal production and achieve self-sufficiency and they have cided to stop imports finally from 1951. In pursuance of is policy, Government have commended the campaign of the Miss a Meal Movement" for consideration of every citizen.

3. As a result of the adverse seasonal conditions that revailed in Mysore during the last cultivating season, there as been a shortfall in the production of foodgrains in Mysore tate too. The estimate of the overall food position of the tate for the year 1950 shows a deficit of about 130 thousand ons of cereals, towards which an allotment of 75 thousand ons has been promised by the Government of India. A large alance of uncovered deficit remains over and the Government Mysore are now confronted with the problem of finding ays and means to cover this large gap.

4. The "Miss a Meal Movement" is sure to solve the tate's uncovered deficit in a large measure if adequate and thusiastic public response is forthcoming. The achievements of the scheme are twofold, being both spiritual and aterial. The Government of Mysore hereby fervently appeal every citizen whether he is a land-holder or a dependent on Government supplies for his rations to kindly come rward and join the Movement so as to help the Government tiding over this critical period and contribute his share, owever small in making the country self-sufficient in the atter of food.

FORMATION OF A MASTER PLAN FOR THE GROWTH OF BANGALORE CITY.

In view of the ever-growing needs of the population of Bangalore and in view of the fact that Bangalore is likely to become the nerve-centre of South India and its importance bound to grow in the years to come, it is felt that a Master Plan which envisages the growth of the City for another 50 years from now and which will provide for such development s absolutely necessary. Otherwise, there is every danger of he City growing up in a very haphazard and erratic manner. If Bangalore has to maintain its reputation as a beautiful and ealthy City, a plan of this kind has to be drawn up immediately. In this connection, the Minister for Finance Engineer, the Chairman, Trust Board, the Government Architect, the Trust Board Engineer, the General Secretary and the Deputy Commissioner (Urban), were present. It was agreed at the meeting that there should not be any delay whatsoever in taking up the project and regulating the future development of Greater Bangalore. There has already been an aerial survey of the area measuring about 104 square miles. The present city limits cover an area of 28 square miles. The City Improvement Trust Board has a jurisdiction over all the area within three miles from the boundaries of the City, convering roughly 84 square miles. The City proper has been surveyed. Certain of the other areas have also been surveyed by the Government of India. The cost of the detailed survey of unsurveyed areas is expected to be about Rs. 1,000 per square mile. Simultaneously with the progress of survey work, the zoning of the area for various purposes, residential, industrial, commercial, etc., has to be taken up so that there would be no confusion in the allotment of sites for various purposes. It was also considered necessary that traffic survey should be conducted to determine the railway routes, bus and trolley-bus routes, etc. The question of water supply to Greater Bangalore is also one of the problems and it was agreed at the meeting that an early decision should be taken in regard to augmentation of the present water supply to the City.

It was also felt that an Organisation similar to those functioning in the West has to be set up in Mysore not only for looking after developments in places like Bangalore and Mysore, but also in other places in the State. This is the trend in all modern countries and since Mysore has already led the way in so many spheres of activity, it was considered necessary that an Organisation of this kind should be set up very soon for proper planning of the growth of the cities and other areas in the State.

These were some of the main issues that were discussed at the meeting and it was considered necessary that the formation of a Committee to work up this Master Plan was an immediate necessity. Government are likely to take up this question early.
